Mr. Sidney P. Noe,

Dear Mr. Noe;

Mr. I. Goldstein is a Jew and I believe comes from Russia, is about thirty years age. He seems to be associated with his father and <sup>in</sup> mother in dealing in second hand jewelry. Was taken up coins as a side issue of his business. I know nothing of his private life. He seems to be a fair man of ordinary attainments and I know nothing against him.

Very truly yours,

Henry Chapman

Dear Sir:-

In response to your inquiry made through our Mr. Reilly I beg to advise that the quotation made on the gold dollar of 1862 (I am not certain that this is the date you assired) is from two to twelve dollars depending on the condition.

Concerning the British Museum Catalogue of Byzantine Coins, this is still in print I believe, and I have no doubt you can secure a copy through Messrs. Longmans Green & Company, who should have a copy in stock.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
